Business & Community Heroes Honored in November

On November 1, more than 200 people gathered at The Grove at Centerton to join The Bridgeton Area Chamber of Commerce in recognizing business and community heroes. It was an evening of emotion and much deserved recognition for the people and organizations who were honored.

Chamber Board Member and Co-Chair of the Hero Awards Committee Randi Galan opened the celebration, "success comes from drive, dedication, confidence, and faith. We acknowledge these words as the foundation for success, success exemplified by our honorees. Their stories of service inspire us to support their efforts and to become community and business heroes ourselves."

Olivia A. Cruz received a community hero award. Olivia founded her nonprofit organization, Love through Laces, which raises awareness as well as funds to purchase new shoes for children in need throughout South Jersey. Over ten years, this project has raised over $55,000 to provide shoes to hundreds of local children deserving of extra love. Her parents accepted the award on her behalf.

Edgar Aquino Huerta, who received a community hero award, is a community leader, filmmaker, and writer that came from a small town in Mexico. Edgar now dedicates himself to working with the Latino, immigrant community. He also created a platform called "Voices of the Soil," which aims to tell uplifting stories, and to highlight artists, and heroes that make a difference in the world. Edgar hopes to expand it into an arts institution in the future where he can create opportunities for his community.

The Dolores Romero Cancer Foundation received a community hero award. It was started in July 2021. The local Business & Community Heroes Recognized

At a celebration of life memorial service to honor her memory, the family learned that someone anonymously paid thousands of dollars of medical expenses on behalf of Dolores. This act of charity moved the family to find a way to pay it forward. This story and the good actions taken are great examples of what it means to be a community hero.

SERVPRO - Team Fabiani accepted a business hero award for its success, dedication, hard work, professionalism, and training. They are part of America's most trusted disaster recovery services. SERVPRO, Team Fabiani has a stellar record of community involvement and service.

Randi Galan State Farm Insurance Agency in the Hopewell Galleria was presented with a business hero award. In January 2018, Randi Galan realized a life-long dream of opening her business in the area where she lives, works and plays. She considers it the highlight of her career.

Randi is a South Jersey native and 30-year veteran of insurance and financial services.

Relationships and community are the focus of her agency. Randi and her team support and volunteer at events all over the area as well as creating innovative social media events as another avenue to give back to the community.

providing information, and helping people succeed. In November 1922 a ballot referendum passed, forming the Bridgeton Free Public Library under the jurisdiction of the Bridgeton City government as it continues today. The library strives to serve young people, assists in their education. With a small, dedicated staff, with the help of volunteers, and the support of Friends of the Library. Save the Library!, and City of Bridgeton, the library offers multicultural and diverse programming.

Wade and Pamela Sjogren received the Francis L. Sharp, Sr. (Binks Sharp) Lifetime Achievement Award. This husband-and-wife team are successful entrepreneurs, parents, and community leaders, who make their lives about love for family, business, Wade presently serves his industry nationally and locally, serves on the Cumberland County and Maurice River Township Economic Development Boards and is the Treasurer of Christ Evangelical Lutheran Church in Bridgeton. Pam served as Chair of the Board of Trustees of Cumberland County College and for their church most recently as a Lay Preacher and Confirmation Class teacher.

Elmer "Skip" Bowman received the Francis L. Sharp, Sr. Lifetime Achievement Award. We are blessed to have people in our community like Skip, who care about others, are willing to serve others, and who believe in our area. Skip Bowman's extraordinary record of service and leadership, including more than 4 decades of service on the Lawrence Township Committee, is just one of the reasons he was selected to receive the award. This long-time resident of Cedarville has made a lasting impact on the community through his commitment to public service.

It's in the Wind: NJ EDA and Salem County Talk about Wind Power

Monica Coffey of NJ EDA speaks at Oct. 17 meeting

The Chamber held its October 17 meeting at the Cumberland County Improvement Authority (The Authority) training center in Deerfield Township. The meeting sponsored by Newfield National Bank, provided an updated look at the job and business opportunities expected from the NJ Wind Port project and the leadership role the State of New Jersey is playing in this emerging, industry along the East Coast. The keynote speaker was Monica Coffey, the

Sr. Officer for Stakeholder Engagement and Communications for this project at NJ EDA.

Frederick Young, Salem County Economic Development Director provided the perspective of Salem County which is home to the Wind Port, and the economic development it can provide there, in Cumberland County, and South Jersey. Both talked about the progress of the construction of the Wind Port in Lower Alloway Creek, the first of its kind in the nation, built to handle the heavy, large elements on the ocean based wind mills. Monica talked about the status of the large projects planned off the Jersey coastline. She acknowledged that political leaders and others in the shore

area have organized opposition to the projects. Subsequent to this meeting Orsted canceled two off-shore wind projects that were planned off the coast of New Jersey. As of the writing of this article, the NJ Wind Port project is nearing completion and Salem County and NJ officials say it will still be a leader in the wind power industry serving other wind projects along the coast. Governor Murphy reacting to the canceled projects said, "I remain committed to ensuring that New Jersey becomes a global leader in offshore wind – which is critical to our economic, environmental, and clean energy future."

Bridgeton Area Chamber's Legislative Breakfast Promotes Communication with State, County, and Local Officials

This article was contributed to by Laurie LaTorre.

The Bridgeton Area Chamber of Commerce board members and other invited guests revived the legislative breakfast tradition on October 11 at The Grove at Centerton. The purpose was to provide a forum for discussion of current legislative issues and to learn a little more about our elected officials. The panel consisted of all six legislators representing the NJ Legislative Districts 1 and 3, which include Cumberland County's 14 municipalities. NJ State Senators Michael Testa and Edward Durr, NJ Assemblymen Antwon McClennan and Erik Simonsen, and NJ Assemblywomen Beth Sawyer, and Bethanne McCarthy-Patrick participated.

There were also guests from Cumberland County and local governments. The panel provided insight into their reasons for running for elected office and shared some of their platform issues. Topics of discussion included the pros and cons of the offshore wind power industry, over-regulation by the State government, especially the NJDEP, concerns about State budgets and spending, including opposition to the multi-billion dollar proposed high-speed train line expansion to Glassboro.

The meeting was organized by the Chamber's Government and Community Relations Committee, co-chaired by Meghan McCormick Hoerner Legislative panel, left-right seated: Sen. Michael Testa, Assemblymen Antwan McClellan and Catherine Hardy. The meeting was sponsored by A Whiskey Array, short-term residential rental homes available in Bridgeton, Hopewell, and Barry Seay of South Jersey Water Conditioning Service is President of the Bridgeton Area Chamber. He is an active board member and founder and chair of the Cumberland County Business Expo and Job Fair. He will serve a second year as President in 2024.

We are completing a successful year for our Chamber of Commerce which included providing many opportunities for networking, education, developing new business, and active partnerships with other Chambers and organizations.

This fall was a busy one as we presented our 37th business and community hero awards celebration, and held our Cumberland County Business Expo and Job Fair. My thanks to all who help plan and present these events. Thanks to our expo partners, Greater Vineland and Greater Millville Chambers, for their assistance.

As this year comes to a close, I thank our board members, officers, staff, and members for your support. I look forward to working together with all of you for a prosperous new year for our chamber and our area. Best wishes for happy, blessed holidays, and the new year ahead.
